Philosophy and Approach: My theory and style of counseling stems from a strength based viewpoint where focus is on solutions and past successes of an individual, couple, child or family.

Education and Training: I hold a Masters Degree in Counseling Psychology/Marriage and Family Therapy from Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon. My undergraduate degree is a B.A. in Psychology from University of Colorado. I hold licensed to practice in Oregon in both Marriage and Family Therapy (#T0637) and as a Licensed Professional Counselor (#C2212)

Code of Ethics: As a Licensed Professional Counselor, I will abide by the Professional Code of Ethics adopted by the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists. <http://www.oregon.gov/OBLPCT/web-coe.shtml>

Fees: I charge $90 per 50 minute session for Individuals and $100 per 50 minute session for couples and families.

Continuing Education Requirements: As a Licensed Professional Counselor/Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in the state of Oregon, I am required to complete 40 hours of approved continuing education every two license years.

As a client of an LPC/LMFT, you have the following rights:

- To expect that a Licensee has met the minimal qualifications of training, supervision and experience required by law.
- To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee.
- To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics. <http://www.oregon.gov/OBLPCT/web-coe.shtml>
- To report complaints to the Board.
- To be informed of the cost of professional service before receiving the service.
- To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions: 1) Reporting suspected child abuse. 2) Reporting imminent danger to client or others. 3) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company, or other relevant agencies. 4) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision. 5) Defending claims brought by client against licensee.
- To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender or other unlawful category while receiving services.
